

Note Printing Australia (NPA) and ANDA

NPA is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Reserve Bank of Australia and has its own Board of Directors and Executive Committee. Note Printing Australia (NPA) evolved from the original print works established by T.S. Harrison to produce Australia's first circulating banknote series in 1913.

NPA works with its customers to provide innovative high quality banknotes, since 2002 passports and other security solutions.

While NPA is responsible for our day to day currency it also has in conjunction with RBA and ANDA developed and released collectables The Australasian Numismatic Dealer's Association (ANDA) as part of it's shows has developed or arrange for NPA and mint Product releases.

Uncut Notes

Uncut Notes are normally sold in Full sheets, Half Sheets, Blocks of 4 or pairs (or potentially errors)

As with coins nobody knows how many of these products are left.

- A lot of the sheets were cut up and sold as singles or pairs
- Note that the Federations sheet is outside the recognised serial number range.
